Beebe, of Sullivan, and Mr. McQuade, of Oneida, were appointed to conduct Mr. Laning to the chair.

Mr. Laning then addressed the convention, directing his remarks entirely to the "unsatisfactory condition his romars entirely to the "unsatisfactory condition of public affairs, the cause and the remedy." He de-clared the distress of the times is the "necessary result of the maladministration of the Republican party, who practically have controlled all the departments of the Government for the last fourteen years and who must therefore be held responsible, as the party in power, for its administration and all the disastrous consequences that have resulted from it and which now afflicted the people of this country." He specified as the work of that party the in-crease of public expenses, the obtaining the Presidency by frand, the disfranchisement of more than four million of voters, a refusal for three years to reapportion the Senate and Assembly districts of this State, thereby disfranchising a large number of our citizens, and depriving the great Cities of New-York and Brooklyn of their proper representation in the enactment of laws. Mr. Lacing said that the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives alone for the last three years, and since it came into power, had reduced the public expenditures, as compared with the three years previous, under a Republican majority, to the amount of $138,270,-236 57, by its refusal to appropriate money to govern

Onoudaga County reported three districts contested; Orleans, a contest for its one district, and Westchester County, a contest in the First District. On motion of Mr. Beebe, the rules of the Assembly were adapted to govern the convention so far as practi-cable. THE BATTLE OF THE DAY BEGINS.

Mr. Greene, of Niagara, offered a resolution that the Tammany and Kings County delegations be admitted to all the rights and privileges of the convention, without prejudica to the claims of contestants until the contests are disposed of.

Mr. West, of Lewis, said he understood the Chair to say that the effect of the resolution was to admit delegates from New-York and Kings to scats.

The Coar said he had not so ruled. It was simply to bring the quostion of contests directly before the house. Mr. West said that was his understanding, and proceeded to state that Tammany had, on a former occasion, held their scats, just as it is proposed they shall now.

Mr. Weed said: Did Tammany vote on the question f (Cries of "Yes, yes!")

Mr. Weed said: Never before was it proposed that a contested delegation should vote on the question of their own admission. He then proceeded to urge that this question of contested seats abould be given to the Committee on Credentials. Never, he misted, did a man vote for his own admission to a body.

Mr. Grady, of New-York—They slways did; always.

Great disorder here ensued.

Mr. Weed ensured the floor and would not be quiet.

The Canic said it was susgested that each member be allowed five unjuties to state his side of the question, and said, if there were no objections, that course would be pittened. [Applause.]

There was no objection, and Mr. Weed proceeded to argue that no member, whose sent was contested, should vote upon the question of deciding his right to a seat.

JOHN KELLY SPEAKS-THE UPROAR WORSE. John Kelly, of New-York, then appeared on the floor, at which there was great cheering. He said:

at which there was great cheering. He said:

I agree with the gentleman that the Democracy of this State is not confined to any one part of it; but we come here finding our seats contested. Now, we are regular or we are irregular. Year after year Tammany has come here and met with contestants, notwithstanding the decisions that we are regular. Now, is it felt that we should most with this treatment? I have been willing to come here and leave it to the convention to say whether we are to be ruled out at the dictation of those who claim to be regular, and who have been probunded irregular year siter year. It has been said that it is unusu. I to allow contestants to take part in a question like thm. It is plain to be seen what the object of this opposition is. It is to deprive a large number of members of a valce upon this important question. I want the question now decided forever. I hope the Chair will decide that the delegates from New-York and Kings Counties be allowed to vote.

The Chair stated that it had no other means of knowing who are members than the roll-call submitted to him by the State Committee. He therefore was obliged to take the roll, and had directed the secretary to call the County of Kings.

Mr. Weed appealed from this decision; and there then Mr. Weed appealed from this decision; and there then easued greater disorder than insid yet taken place during the day. Mr. Pecaham, of Albany, Mr. Weed and others, filled the alsies, shouting, threatening, etc., while everybody was shouting for order and the clerk was calling the names of the Kings County delegates.

The Mayor and police here entered the hall and insisted that the members should take their seats. Some resisted, and everybody was on his feet, while the hall resonates with confunion.

Mr. Smith Weed had half a dozen police about him, trying to get him off a seat he had monded, but he defled them. The police were finally withdrawn to the front of the stage.

Mr. West, of Lewis, took the platform and endeavored to be heard. After a while comparative quiet was restored, and he appealed to the convention to come to order.

ferring to the disgrace of the turmoil, proceeded to say that his bonest opinion was that the chair was wrong in refusing to entertain Mr. Weed's appeal, but in case a vote was taken on the appeal when New-York and Kings were reached, then the same question would again recur; New-York would insist upon her right to vote. He asked Mr. Weed if he would permit New-York to vote on the appeal. [Cries of "No."] Mr. Beche—Then what is gained i. The chair asked the gentieman from Clinton what decision his appeal was from.

Mr. Weed replied, the decision which directed the delegates from New-York and Kings to be called and to be allowed to vote themselves into this convention. He said there was enough in the action of the minority of this convention, sided by its chairman, to make the majority withdraw from it.

Mr. Spinola—Oh, that's too thin.
Mr. Beebe said: The centleman knows that no motion is in order while a roll-call is pending, except a call of the house.

The chair decided that a motion to adjourn or take a recess was not now in order.

The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, The delegation from the City of New-York commonly known as the Tammany delegation, elected by the several Assembly districts of that city, and the delegation from the County of Kings, known as the Melaughlin delegation, similarly elected, having been repeatedly recognized by the State Convention as the regular organizations from those counties respectively, and having been so recognized after a contest at the last Democratic State Convention, and the facts in respect of the regularity of such delegations being substantially the same now as existed at the sitting of the last convention; and Whereas, It is unjust to disfranchise so large a Democratic constituency as is represented by those delegations in the preliminary proceedings of the convention, and these circumstances make these cases exceptions to the general rule governing contestants, terefore, Resolved, That the delegates above named be allowed to take seates and participate in all the proceedings of this convention; reserving, however, the right of any contestants to contest their seats before the Committee on Credentals and this convention.

The convention theu, at 4:30 p. m., took a recess for two hours.

THE DISSENTERS HOLD A CAUCUS. After the adjournment, P. W. Peckham, of Albany, called on those who did not sympathize with the action just taken to remain in the hall. The dissenters met at the Park Opera House at 5 o'clock p. m. On motion of Mr. Pecknam, of Albany, Smith M. Weed, of Clinton, was called to the chair.

Mr. Purdy spoke, criticising the action of Tammany Hall in the past and to-day, denouncing it as tyronnous. He also criticised the action of the chairman of the cor vention, and said he could admire a man who, when about to do a bad thing, does it beidly and at once, but this chairman vasciliated; he hesitated in doing his bad work, and, said Mr. Pordy, I therefore brand him as a

THE DEFENCE OF BILLINGS.

Ballston, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- In the Billings trial to-lay, Wilfred Passnow, fourteen years old, testifled to having seen a bareheaded man pass him near Gorham's store on the towpath a few moments after the shot was fired. Jules Gannon and George Yott accompanied Gornam up the towpath to Billings's house, and met a bareheaded man wearing gray clothes, who passed between Yott and a barn, through a space of three feet. John Dounelly found a hat beside the highway, about 4 o'clock on the morning after the murder.

The hat was produced in court, and admitted in evidence Margaret Guernsey and Frank Dumas live near Billings.

They heard the shot at 8:45 p. m. Mrs. Elizabeth They heard the shot at 8:45 p. m. Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, a few nights before the murder, saw a man with shabby gray clothes, a black bat, black hair and short black worksers, crouched down by Hillinga's feucelooing through the tence toward the window where Mrs. Billings was shot. George W. Jones was fishing on the river when he saw Billings drive out of the lane and start toward Washburne's. He heard the shot six minutes afterward. The cross-axamination was not concluded. 8,454 CASES, AND 2.608 DEATHS TO DATE. New-Orleans, Sept. 25 .- To-day's yellow-fever reports show thirty-six deaths and 100 new cases. There were 344 cases of yellow fever reported up to noon to-day, but 243 were excluded from the official report, as they dated back to the 22d instant. Grand total of cases, 8,454; Ceaths, 2,608. The deaths include twelve children under seven years of age.

Woodland E. Barnes, ionricen years old, son of the late W. E. Barnes, manager of the New-Orleans office of the Western Union Telegraph, is dead. The remaining four children of the family have the fever. Brother Cyprians, of the Order of the Hely Cross, died to-day.

The reports at the Board of Health this morning show that the fever is spreading along the line of St. Charles-ave., above Napoleon, and is quite bad both in Carreliton and in the Third District, Its appearance in these neighborhoods has undergone no special modification since the inception of the epidemic. Although the disease seems quite as virulent as previously, the physicians have gained greater experience, and critical cases do not appear

The Young Men's Christian Association has received a despatch from Dr. Woolf, at Winona, Miss., announcing the death of Mr. Kittrell and others sick there before his arrival. The place is almost depopulated. Other dispatches report the death of a child at Mandeville, La., and six new cases and two deaths in the last twenty-four hours at Southwest Pass. BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 25 .- Fever report today: Deaths, 2; new cases, 38. At Ricohoe Plantation there were 3 deaths and 7 cases. At Canton there were 2 deaths and 21 cases-all within the past twenty-four hours. Captain S. M. Robbins, civil engineer and superintendent of the Government Works at the National Cemetery here, died of yellow fever this morning at 5 o'clock. This brave gentleman, universally esteemed by all, remained here despite the advice of his friends who urged him to absent himnity or of his friends who urged him to absent himself during the epidemic. Three deaths occurred last night and there is no abatement of new cases. Whole families are down with fever. The great firmness displayed by our population, which enables our sick to obtain prompt attention, has saven many lives. Between fity and sixty deaths of yellow fever have occurred to date. The situation has been growing worse from day to day for the past week. Unless cold weather comes soon we have much trouble ahead. CHATTANOGGA, Tenh., Sept. 25.—There was one death from yellow fever here last night, and eight new cases for the twenty-four hours ended at 10 o'clock this morning. Buildings in course of erection by the Relief Committee, as a camp for the sick on the side of Lookout Mountain, have been burned, with all the carpenters' tools.

BAD WEATHER AT MEMPHIS. FORTY-FIVE DEATHS IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS-THE NUMBER OF CONVALESCENTS INCREASING.

MEMPHIS, Teun., Sept. 25 .- From noon yesterday up to noon to-day forty-five deaths have occurred, twenty-five of which were reported this morning. The Board of Health officially reports thirty-seven deaths from yellow fever for the twentyfour hours ending at 6 o'clock to-night. Of these thirteen were colored. While this is the official report its correctness is doubted, as the names of one or two well known citizens, who died last evening and were buried, do not appear. Among those interred is Dr. E. A. DeGraffenreed, of Georgia.

The weather grows warmer and will cause a further spreading of the disease. The only cheering signs noticed are the daily increasing number of convalescents who are seen on the streets. Among the deaths reported since last night are Dr. Robert Bursham, a volunteer physician from Columbus, Ohio; John Meath, a fireman; James Collins, at the State Female College; William B. Goodleet, Robert Britton and L. Schilling, Crabtree Belcher, City Register, died on Monday night at Tuscumbia, Als. Among those stricken to-day are the Rev. Dr. White, Rector of Calvary night at Tuscumbia, Als. Among those sireau to-day are the Rev. Dr. White, Rector of Calvary Church; Mrs. A. Hetzleid, Fannie Prescott, niece of O. F. Prescott, a prominent Odd Fellow; the wife of the Rev. W. E. Boggs, Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, M. W. Redford, of B. J. Semmes & Co., and Dr. K. B. Maury. A. D. SIR: Since it has become generally known that the deficiency in the books of Mr. J. Benedict Sec. the North Tarrytown Treasurer, was not caused by any malicious intention on his part to defraud the town, but that he loaned the money to his father, believing that the latter would be able to may it when it was it. the latter would be able to pay it when it was wanted, and also that Mr. See was arrested before he had a chance to obtain the money from his friends, great in-dignation has been expressed against the Board of dignation has been expressed against the Board of Trustees as well as against one of his bondsmen, Mr. Ira Miller. The cutizens of the town, among them prominent members of the legal profession, unite in denouncing the whole proceeding as outrageous. The $700 have been raised, rich and poor contributing, and the defi-ciency has been paid. Tarrytown thinks that Mr. See has served it too long and faithfully for him to go be-fore a Grand Jury like a notorious feton because he made an error in judgment.

REFEREESHIPS AND ILLEGAL FEES COMMENTS UPON THE AUTION OF THE BAR ASSE CIATION - WHAT IS SAID OF ITS POLITICAL EFFECT-GREAT INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF

The action of the Bar Association, in appointing a committee to receive complaints of illegal fees in the offices of the Sheriff, County Clerk and Register, is looked upon by some lawyers as a move in the interest of Anti-Tammany organizations; others assert that no political object is intended. The number of favorite referees is found now to exceed that discovered when THE TRIBUNE made its exposure of the "Gratz" system.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION'S ATTACK. COMMENTS UPON THE PROPOSED INVESTIGATION OF

ILLEGAL FERS-A POLITICAL MOTIVE DENIED BY SOME LAWYERS AND ASSERTED BY OTHERS. There was a difference of opinion among lawyers yesterday as to the intended effect of the meeting of the Bar Association on the previous evening.

Opponents of ex-Governor Tilden believed that the movers of the meeting had a political object in view in calling it immediately before the Democratic State Convention. The arraignment of Tammany office helders by so influential an organization as the Bar Association, they said, would have an effect to weaken 115 the power of Tammany against Mr. Tilden in the Syracuse Convention. Other members of the association believed that no political movement had been intended by the members who were instrumental in calling the Elliott F. Shepard said vesterday that he believed that the meeting of the Bar Association on the previous evening had been intended to serve a political purpose. The association might have been somewhat listery in pushing forward the work which it began in 1872, but there was no excuse for the im petuous and unseemly manner of proceeding at the last meeting, except the wish to make political capital. The meeting had been sprung on the association. The effect of this sudden action, he shought, would be to change the rules of the association, so that a meeting could not he called without longer notice. Mr. Shepard said he believed that the chief cause for complaint against lilegal fees lay in the Speriff's office. The County Clerk, he thought, performed his duties as well as they co-

"I do think," Mr. Shepard continued, "that the affairs of the County Clerk's office ought to be investigated, in order that some changes may be made in the law which governs its workings. At present the work of searching the titles to property is attended with great difficulty and expense. But I believe the fau'ts to be corrected are in the law, and not in Mr. Gumbleton. The committee which I appointed at a meeting of lawyers in the office of the County Clerk, was designed to make just such an investigation as is needed to bring to light these faults. Some members of the committee have got the impression that a political complexion would be given to their work, and they are unwilling to serve. I shall not appoint a new committee until another meeting has been called, and I shall not call another meeting until after the elections are over."

George F. Langbein, a member of the committee appointed by Mr. Shepard, was outspoken in his views yesterday. "I think I can see the hand of Mr. Tilden in this movement," he said. "Eise why such unseemly haste in having the meeting of the Bar Association called just before the Syracuse Convention # Mr. Tilden wanted to control the convention, and he expected the opposition of Tammany. What better means could be employ to weaken the power of Tammany in the convention toan the arraignment of Tammany leaders and office-holders the arraignment of Tammany leaders and office-holders by such men as compose the Bar Association! I believe most lawyers in the city are auxilling to attack County Clark Gumpleton. What faults there are in his office are not due to his taffasnee, but have resulted from long established custom."

Artemus H. Hollers, chairman of the committee appointed by the Bar Association, said yescerday: "When I was served with a notice of the meeting, I had an idea that it had been called in the interest of the Tammany office-holders. I went to the meeting with the invention of working against any attempt to waitewash the Sheriff, County Cierk or Register. I found that the friends of one of these officers were trying to stave off the action of the association. I am persuaded that the movers of the meeting had no political ends in view. My position as a Republican is a proof that I did not work in the interest of Mr. Tillien." HOUGHTON-SKAATS-September 25, by the Rev. William M. Paxton, William Hadwin Houghton to Margaret A. Skaats, nee Castle, all of New-York.

THE "GRATZES" COME AGAIN. THE NUMBER OF FAVORITE REFEREES MORE NUM-RROUS THAN FORMERLY-WHAT THE RECORDS

OF THE REGISTER SHOW. A few years ago the system of numerous references by the Judges of the Supreme Court to a lew of their personal friends was very fully exposed in The TRIBUNE, and this and other exposures led to a reform of the system, and finally to the imposemment and removal of two of the judges, and the resignation of one other most flagrantly guilty of favoritism in this regard. These favorite referees came to be known by the name of Gratzes," owing to a little incident which occurred in Judge George G. Barnard's court. The opposing lawyers in a case before him had agreed to have the matter referred to a lawyer, and had mutually selected Grati Nathan as the referee to decide between them. It had always been customary for the Judge to consent to any referee mutually agreed upon by the contending counsel, but Judge Barnard happened on this occasion to be in one of his extraordinary humors, and when the name of Gratz Nathan was suggested he exclaimed in a loud voice: " Refer it to Gratz Nathau ! No, sir; send it to

Jimmy Coleman-he's my Gratz."

The "Gratzes" are now even more numerous than formerly, and favoritism seems largely to provail, as the list below would indicate. Most of these references are for the sale of real estate, and the amount of real property thus conveyed through the instrumentality of the ourts and their referces is enormous. A recent examnation of the records brings out the fact that 8,076 reteree deeds were recorded in the office of the Regis-ter, between January 1, 1867, and September 12, 1878. Below are the names of some of the favored gentlemen with the number of deeds executed by each :

COMPLEXION OF THE COMMITTEE. To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: Four of the five committeemen directed by the resolution of last evening to represent the Bar Association in endeavoring to procure the indictment Hoedel and Nobiling cases, no trace of a conaphracy of the Sheriff, County Clerk and Register, are known as friends or political supporters of Mr. Tilden; one of the four sharing Mr. Tildau's office as well as his counsels. This may be well—no one has more of the necessary knowledge acquired from old associations than Mr. Tilden : none a more pungent present motive to incite him to carry through the criminal prosecution more effectively than any other man could. Nevertheless, in this appointment of the committee, the apologists for the accused officials will again see ground for their misconception of the moving sentiment of the association and of the public. They will again assert that this movement, on the eve of the Syracuse Convention, is movement, on the eve of the Syracuse Convention, is simply and vulgarly political, and "Anti-Tammanyite." In fact, nothing could be less true of the active workers present at the meeting (among whom four of the committeemen cannot be reckoned), and it will be a grievous diagrace, and one surely to be recalled hereafter, if the office of this committee should be used only as a make-weight in the present political estangiement. The very excellent geullemen of the committee must act, and cannot afford to let the next Grand Jury pass

"FOLLY OF THE MOST EMPHATIC SORT."

From The New York Examp Post.

THE TRIBUNE expressed its honest opinion yesterday about a play at one of the theatres of this city, and the manager promptly discontinued his advertisement in that jurnal. This is a folly of the most emphatic sort. Do the managers of the theatres desire no discrimination to be shown by the newspaper critical if so the public will soon discover the fraud and cease to be influenced by the critics, if that term could then be used. Thus the managers would be left at the mercy of the few high-priced "stars" whose merits are well known, and the list of plays would be confined to those of which the public has already approved. We should go back to the time when there were no newspapers, and news spread from mouth to mouth. True, this might eventually answer the purpose of the theatre managers, and the merits of a good play might become pretty generally known; but in the meantime we imagine that the manager would often sigh for a little newspaper help while looking over his cesh account. Nothing is clearer than that the impartial dramatic critic is the triend of the theatre manager, for when the manager deserves well of the public, the newspapers send the public to his theatre and make his fortune for him. If the entertainment provided is bad, does the manager of a theatre suppose that he can change the opinion of the newspaper by removing his business card! That Tailburn invites the managers who are in doubt to try the experiment and see.
